ACTION OFFICE SYSTEM

PROVEN, PRACTICAL, ECONOMICAL

The world's first open plan office system was designed for change. As a result, it's been a proven performer for decades.

Constantly evolving to support the changing requirements and challenges of the workplace has kept the Action Office system relevant and responsive. Careful adherence to designer Robert Propst's original criteria for ease of specifying, installing, and updating has ensured that it continues to offer exceptional value and return on investment.

No panel system is easier or quicker to install and reconfigure. A concise and versatile product vocabulary simplifies ordering and streamlines inventory control. Durable, interchangeable panels and components assure that it will adapt to workplace changes far into the future.

Materials

From light to dark, warm to cool, the colors of Action Office span a spectrum of choices, helping make it a highly versatile and practical system. Neutrals allow Action Office to blend with nearly any environment, while brights, veneers, and transluents add depth and character. The range of panel surface treatments ensures uncommon flexibility.
